France 24 is now available on the Australian dedicated news streaming service, Flash

The international news channel France 24 continues to develop in Australia thanks to the news-only streaming service, Flash.

Launched on October 14, Flash brings together a wide range of international news sources including France 24 in English.

This new and innovative subscription service is available on phones, tablets, PCs and TVs to all Australians, representing some 26 million people.

In Australia, France 24 in English is already available to 300,000 households on Fetch TV and is partially broadcast every day by SBS, the Australian public service broadcaster, on SBS 1 from 6:00 am to 6:30 am.
